A DAY IN TALLEY CAVEY VILLAGE – Sunday, September 19 1–4 pm

It is September 19, 1794 in the Village of Talley Cavey. Just like “Brigadoon”, Talley Cavey comes alive for one exciting day! The settlers are divided over the tax on whiskey – some residents support a strong central government while others feel the tax is taking away the right of the individuals. The militia is on alert – the rumor is that George Washington is coming at the head of the Federal Army! Come to the Village to follow the exciting events!

Admission: Members– $3.00 Adults/$1.00 Children; Non–members– $5.00 Adults/$3.00 Children
