

Indian Guide and Princess Program

Their childhood may be brief but their memories will last a lifetime

We're Offering Something Money Can't Buy...

A chance to be pals with your child

Have you ever made a pledge to spend time with your children?

Here's an opportunity to make your pledge come true. Become part of our YMCA parent-child program. You and your child will soon solidify a warm and close relationship.

Since 1926 the YMCA has sponsored Y-Indian Guide Programs designed to bring parents and their children closer together. The strong qualities of - dignity, patience, endurance, spirituality, feeling for the earth, and concern for the family - have become the corner stone of Y-Guide programs. Today more than half-a-million members participate in these nationwide programs for kids in grades K-3.

In these programs you'll also meet and share experiences with other parents who need time together with their children. Each of you will have one very important thing in common - the desire to build a stronger relationship with your child (ren), while the character attributes of honesty, respect, responsibility and caring are emphasized.
